

Storytelling as a Healing Art

JUNE 13-19 GLASGOW
THE KELVIN CONFERENCE CENTRE

We are excited to announce Scotland's first Symposium for Storytelling as a Healing Art at The Kelvin Conference Centre, Glasgow.

Stories for Health - Words for Wellbeing

What's Involved

This is a week long residential course for storytellers, teachers, health & care professionals, communities and friends. We will share ideas and practice on Storytelling as a Healing Art, as well as enjoy networking with people who work in a variety of fields. The course is available to anyone with an interest in working in this unique way or who would like to know and experience more to enhance their way of working and practice.

Delegates can choose from one of 6 week-long professional storytelling practitioners' workshops, led by national and international facilitators who are pioneers in this field. The rest of the programme will be an exciting mix of workshops, sharing sessions, lectures/talks and Ceilidhs inspired by Scotland's cultural traditions; including singing, dancing & storytelling.

If you don't know the trees, you may be lost in the forest, but if you don't know the stories, you may be lost in life.
